E-MAIL WRITING

What is an E-mail?

---

An e-mail is the fastest way to communicate in writing. The word e-mail simply means electronic mail, which we send across the Internet or other computer networks. An e-mail can be sent from a computer or from a smartphone that has access to the Internet.

Some Facts about E-mail

- An e-mail is sent using an account which stores the sent and received messages online.
- E-mail accounts can be created on email service providers like Gmail, Yahoo and AOL.
- Most of these service providers do not charge when you create an email account.
- An email account is operated through a personal email address (e.g. `abc@xyz.com` ) that can be accessed only with a password (a series of letters or numbers).
- Your password is a secret and should never be shared with anyone!
- You can send written messages, photos, videos and audio files through email.

What does an E-mail Look Like?

Most e-mail service providers allow users to customise their online profiles. Each user can choose from a variety of themes and set their preferences. It is similar to setting themes on your computer.

An e-mail looks like a letter except that it is not handwritten. Let us examine the differences between a letter and an e-mail.

E-mail	Letter

Sent via Internet	Sent via post office
Is received instantly	Takes days to reach the recipient

- The body

The following fields are a part of the header:

- The To field

- The Subject line

The body of the e-mail consists of an introductory paragraph and a short description in writing. It consists of

- A salutation
- An opening sentence
- The information in detail
- Closing line
- Signature line

	To...	Email address of the recipient of the e-mail
	Cc...	Email addresses of people other than the main recipient who need to read the email
	Bcc...	Email addresses of people who must read the email without the knowledge of the other recipients
	Subject: The purpose of the email

Subject	Troublesome neighbours in B-22

Dear Mr Yadav,

I would like to bring to your notice that the Sahanis who moved into our society last month are becoming a nuisance for us and the whole building.

I live on the second floor of the B wing in Shanti Sadan CHS. The Sahanis stay next to me in B-22 and have some strange habits. Every morning, the sweeper picks the trash bags that we keep at our doorstep. The Sahanis just scatter the garbage outside their door instead of using a trash bag. This makes the floor a party house for cats and rodents. The floor is always stinking as a result, and the sweeper has a difficult time cleaning the mess. Their youngest son has been scribbling on doors of other apartments with markers. When I tried to talk to the parents, they rudely slammed the door on my face. We have tried to communicate with the Sahanis several times explaining that they are causing a great deal of inconvenience. However, they don't seem to pay any heed to our requests.

I request you to arrange for a society meeting and address this issue at the earliest.

I look forward to your response.

Regards,

Jatin Singh

Subject	Will not be able to come home this summer

Hi Everyone,

I hope all of you are in great health! I know you are eagerly waiting for me to come home during the vacations. However, this year I will not be able to come home as the school is taking us to Sikkim for a fortnight.

Last month, I had participated in the National Ice Skating Championship (NISK) with 10 other students from the secondary section. As you know, we won the first prize in the competition. Last week, the NISK also sent an e-mail informing the school about a sponsored trip to Sikkim. We will be taken to some interesting places around Sikkim like the Aritar Lake (Ghati-Tso), Borong Ralong Hot Spring, Gangtok Ropeway, Rumtek and Tashiding monasteries, and the Himalayan Zoological Park. I am really excited about the trip but also upset because I can't come home this year. However, I will ask my teacher if I can have a short trip home after the Sikkim tour. I would love to share my travel experience with you all personally, especially with you, grandpa, as you have lived in Sikkim for some years.

I hope to see you all soon and look forward eagerly to my trip.

Regards,

Vikram

Hi Pavitra,

Hope you have been fine.

It has been almost five years since we met each other after you shifted to Bengaluru for graduation. I think we last spent time together at our HSC farewell party, where you told me that you will be going to Bengaluru for your higher studies at IJNM. Time flew and we got busy with our studies and lives.

I will be visiting Mysore and Bengaluru for a study tour, and will be in Bengaluru for a week. How about meeting up and spending some time together? I will get two days off from the study tour and was wondering if you can find some time. Do let me know what you think.

I look forward to your reply and am excited about meeting you!

Subject	Rash biking outside Pashupati CHS

Dear Sir,

My name is Anthony Mathews, and I am a resident of Pashupati CHS in your area for the past seven years.

The locality is known for its calmness and sophisticated residents. However, for the past couple of weeks, some boys from another locality have been wreaking havoc in our lives. Ever since the road leading to our society opened for public use, some bikers have started using it as a shortcut to get to the highway. The boys ride recklessly, horn indiscreetly and do not care about the children and elderly crossing the road.

I would appreciate it if you could visit the area, especially in the evening, and examine the situation yourself.

I look forward to your prompt action in this matter.

Dear Naidu Sir,

I hope you remember the lean, curly haired back-bencher in your Sociology lecture who would spend most of the lecture time doodling in his notebook, but whom you would keep back after school every other day and counsel him to use his skills constructively.

I am Nishant Nair (Roll No. 46), and today I would like to thank you for driving me to become successful. I have completed my graduation in Urban Planning and Design from the Harvard University Graduate School of Design, and have been hired by one of the most famous architectural firms in Paris. I remember you nagging me repeatedly to pay attention in class and complete all the assignments on time. When you constantly told me that I could become an excellent professional in architecture and design, I thought you were mocking me. But when I entered Harvard, I realised that this was where I really wanted to be.

I was the top scorer of my batch, and at the graduation ceremony, everyone praised me for my artistic skills and meticulousness. These were the qualities you said were innate in me and that I should polish further.

Naidu Sir, I will be returning home next week, and I would like to meet you and thank you personally for believing in me and leading me on the right path.

I look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,
